

IN 1960, JOHN AND HIS FATHER WATCHED TED WILLIAMS HIT HIS LAST HOME RUN.

IN 1986, JOHN AND HIS SON SAW ROGER CLEMENS THROW 20 STRIKEOUTS IN A NINE-INNING GAME.

IN 2004, JOHN HELD HIS GRANDSON ON HIS SHOULDERS SO HE COULD WATCH DAVE ROBERTS STEAL SECOND BASE.

IN 2018, JOHN REMEMBERS NONE OF IT.

Alzheimer's disease takes away the memories which connect us to our families and our shared history. With your help, we can find a cure.
